MOMIX'S ALICE

WELCOME

Dear Festival Friend,

Your Virginia Arts Festival is a joyous, entertaining, moving, transformative place to be this spring! In the company of some of the world's most renowned artists, we'll experience music, dance and theater as we never have before.

Immerse yourself in one of the most beloved and celebrated voices of our time, Renée Fleming. Imagine peace and understanding through the arts as the legendary cellist Yo-Yo Ma shares music and stories. Experience the raw energy of rock and the grace of ballet as Britain's Birmingham Royal Ballet transforms the music of Black Sabbath. Delight in the eye-popping dance of MOMIX — ALICE, filled with whimsy and illusions inspired by Alice in Wonderland. Hear from geniuses at the forefront of musical invention as banjo virtuoso Béla Fleck unveils his newest collaboration, and composer Jessie Montgomery performs her work.

Savor soul-stirring classical music, including Mahler's glorious Ninth Symphony and a compelling array of chamber music performances curated by our Connie & Marc Jacobson Director of Chamber Music, Olga Kern.

We'll hear the irresistible swinging sound of the best big band in the world, the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis, and two of the best voices in jazz today, when Samara Joy and Diana Krall grace our stages.

So much to experience! Our Perry Pavilion is fairly bursting with musical variety, from the Puerto Rican superstars Plena Libre to the legendary Louisiana Calling featuring Sonny Landreth Band & The Iguanas to fan favorites The Wood Brothers.

And mark your calendar for our Virginia International Tattoo, with its spectacular celebration of the 250th birthdays of the U.S. Army, Navy, and Marine Corps.

I hope to see you again and again this season!

MOMIX ALICE

Inspired by Alice in Wonderland

Curiouser and curiouser! Seamlessly blending illusion, acrobatics, magic, and whimsy, MOMIX sends audiences flying down the rabbit hole in Moses Pendleton's newest creation, ALICE, inspired by Lewis Carroll's classic Alice in Wonderland. Join this dazzling company on a mind-bending adventure, as Alice encounters the undulating Caterpillar, a lobster quadrille, frenzied White Rabbits, the mad Queen of Hearts, and other surprises.

BIRMINGHAM ROYAL BALLET

Black Sabbath — The Ballet
with Virginia Symphony Orchestra

The raw energy of rock ... the strength and grace of ballet! Virginia Arts Festival presents the U.S. premiere of a spectacularly entertaining new work! The internationally acclaimed ballet company salutes some of Birmingham's most famous exports — Ozzy Osbourne and Black Sabbath — in this vibrant piece. With eight classic Black Sabbath hits arranged for orchestra and rock band, and a live guitarist on stage with the dancers, a pulsing light show frames the action. Experience rock — and ballet — as you never have before!

AN AFTERNOON WITH YO-YO MA

Reflections in Words and Music

A 19-time GRAMMY® winner who has performed for nine American presidents and been presented both the National Medal of Arts and the Presidential Medal of Freedom, Yo-Yo Ma has become an ambassador for humanity, championing music and the arts as a path to peace and understanding. This special performance pairs beloved repertoire with reflections on how music has shaped ideas about art, human nature, and our search for meaning.

MAHLER SYMPHONY NO. 9

Virginia Symphony Orchestra

Eric Jacobsen, conductor

One of the most beloved symphonies in the classical repertoire, Mahler's Ninth is a profoundly emotional experience. It begins in hushed awe, harp, horns and strings beckoning, and transports the listener through wave after wave of joy and sorrow, loss and redemption. Listen and discover why Virginia Symphony Orchestra's conductor Eric Jacobsen calls it "one of the greatest accomplishments of humanity." A must for any music lover's bucket list!

VOCAL MUSIC

THE TALLIS SCHOLARS

Dubbed “the rock stars of Renaissance vocal music” by The New York Times, this legendary ensemble has perhaps done more than any other group to put sacred vocal music of the Renaissance on music lovers’ top ten lists. Norfolk’s historic Christ & St. Luke’s Church makes the perfect setting for their beautiful sound, which summons the echoes of the past and reveals new delights in works by contemporary composers.

AN EVENING WITH KELLI O'HARA

Rob Fisher, music director and conductor
 Virginia Symphony Orchestra

“The undisputed queen of Broadway” (The Times), Kelli O'Hara has enchanted audiences in such musicals as Kiss Me Kate, The Bridges of Madison County, South Pacific, and more. A gifted actress, she is possessed of a gorgeous voice as much at home on the opera stage as on Broadway — and she has also won millions of fans on television, including The Gilded Age. Here she joins famed Broadway music director Rob Fisher — the Festival's Goode Family Artistic Advisor for Musical Theater and American Songbook — and the Virginia Symphony Orchestra for a spellbinding evening of song, including Broadway favorites and more. Don't miss this performance by one of Broadway's greatest stars!

More than 240 years after he wrote his first composition (a march for piano), Beethoven remains among the most beloved composers of all time. His mighty symphonies resound in the memory; his works for piano are beloved by artists and audiences alike; his chamber music masterworks number among the most-recorded of all composers.

Virginia Arts Festival's Connie and Marc Jacobson Director of Chamber Music, the Van Cliburn Gold Medal-awarded pianist Olga Kern, has curated a season of chamber concerts that offer enticing new ways to savor Beethoven classics, including his chamber works but also transcriptions for chamber ensemble of symphonies and more. Kern will join acclaimed chamber artists including violinist Lana Trotořšek, cellist Nina Kotova and pianist János Balázs in both evening performances and morning Coffee Concerts.

HUNDREDS OF PERFORMERS FROM AROUND THE WORLD!

AMERICA'S INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TATTOO

A SALUTE TO 250 YEARS OF SERVICE AND SACRIFICE

Happy 250th Birthday to the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps!

Join us for a celebration 250 years in the making, on the occasion of the 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. The 2025 Virginia International Tattoo features exceptional performers from the U.S. Army, Navy, and Marine Corps joined by an international cast of more than 800 performers from six nations. Returning favorites include Norway's spectacular Band and Drill Team of His Majesty the King's Guard, the rousing Massed Pipes and Drums from four nations and the nimble OzScot Australia Highland Dancers. Exciting new performers include the Japan Air Self-Defense Force (JASDF) Central Band in their first trip to the United States.

At the heart of every performance will be an emotional and grateful tribute to our Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines. With stirring music, heartfelt tributes to those who have served, and appearances by some very special guests, this Tattoo will remind us that as Americans, we enjoy freedoms made possible by 250 years of Service and Sacrifice.

CINDERELLA

Alma Deutscher, composer/conductor

Student performers from

The Governor's School for the Arts Vocal & Instrumental Music Departments

featuring Virginia Children's Chorus

Born in 2005, this extraordinary, multi-talented artist began composing at age six, and within just a few years had created an astonishing body of work, receiving media attention from around the globe. In this Virginia Arts Festival collaboration, Alma Deutscher will conduct student instrumentalists and vocalists from The Governor's School for the Arts in her opera Cinderella.

While based on the traditional fairy-tale, Deutscher has adapted the story to revolve around music. After Cinderella flees the ball, the prince will search for her not with the aid of a glass slipper, but with the beginning of a melody, which only she will know how to continue. Completed when she was just 10, Cinderella's premiere received glowing reviews, including this from Opera Today: "A young talent's sensational burst to prominence... a once-in-a-lifetime opera-going event that had audiences standing and cheering."

RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN'S THE SOUND OF MUSIC SING-A-LONG

RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN'S THE SOUND OF MUSIC SING-A-LONG

Grab your lederhosen, practice your best Maria von Trapp impression and get ready to enjoy Rodgers & Hammerstein's The Sound of Music Sing-A-Long! Join us for a screening of the smash-hit 1965 movie musical in glorious, full-screen technicolor, complete with onscreen lyrics. Based on the amazing true story of The Trapp Family Singers, The Sound of Music is a cinematic landmark and winner of five Academy Awards®, including Best Picture. Starring Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer, the film features timeless songs by Rodgers & Hammerstein including "My Favorite Things", "Do-Re-Mi", "Edelweiss", "Climb Ev'ry Mountain" and more.

Before the film begins, you'll test your knowledge with movie trivia, and learn how to participate throughout the screening using your complimentary tote bag filled with interactive surprises. You'll then enjoy the movie with your fellow attendees — costumed nuns, Maria look-alikes and von Trapp children — all singing their hearts out to the classic Rodgers & Hammerstein tunes. Costumes are not obligatory but highly recommended!

BÉLA FLECK, EDMAR CASTAÑEDA and ANTONIO SÁNCHEZ TRIO

18-time GRAMMY® winner Béla Fleck — the world's premier banjo virtuoso and a celebrated musical adventurer — has both explored his instrument's complex global history and unlocked the breadth of its possibilities. For over 30 years, he has led Béla Fleck & The Flecktones, the groundbreaking quartet inspired by jazz, funk, bluegrass and beyond. He has written and performed three banjo concertos and traced the African origins of the banjo with the award-winning 2009 documentary Throw Down Your Heart. Collaborators include Abigail Washburn, the Brooklyn Rider String Quartet, Chris Thile, The Blind Boys of Alabama, McCoy Tyner, Zakir Hussain, Edgar Meyer, and Rakesh Chaurasia. Fleck returns to Virginia Arts Festival with his latest project, featuring acclaimed harpist Edmar Castañeda and drummer Antonio Sánchez for an innovative and dynamic fusion of sounds.

THE WOOD BROTHERS

Hailed by NPR as “masters of soulful folk,” The Wood Brothers have cemented a reputation, among fans and critics alike, as freethinking songwriters and road warriors. Their latest studio album, Heart is The Hero, has won rave reviews for “songs that reflect the fears, hopes, and joys of everyday people. Their poetry is sonic as well as lyrical and will speak to you in ways you won’t anticipate” (Rock & Blues Muse). But as Rolling Stone attests, “there is still nothing like seeing The Wood Brothers on a stage.” Hear their latest work alongside their classics in this eagerly anticipated Festival return.

SWAMP DOGG

This artist has been challenging musical genre definitions since his 1970 debut, blurring the lines between blues, soul, funk, roots rock, folk and bluegrass in tell-it-like-it-is performances that steal the show. A Portsmouth native, Swamp Dogg has inspired artists for generations with his “salty, earthy Southern-soul storytelling” (The New York Times) and innovative style. The artists he’s worked with include John Prine, Bon Iver, Sierra Hull, Jenny Lewis, and Vernon Reid. He’s still got what it takes to rock the house — grab your tickets for this iconic performer.

PUNCH BROTHERS

Punch Brothers, formed in 2006, are a virtuosic quintet featuring mandolinist Chris Thile, guitarist Chris Eldridge, bassist Paul Kowert, banjoist Noam Pikelnny, and violinist Brittany Haas. Known for pushing the boundaries of acoustic music, the band has garnered critical acclaim, including a GRAMMY® for Best Folk Album for All Ashore (2018). The Washington Post applauded them for taking “bluegrass to its next evolutionary stage, drawing equal inspiration from the brain and the heart.” Over the years, they’ve become pioneers in modern string music, with albums like Antifogmatic (2010), Who’s Feeling Young Now (2012) and The Phosphorescent Blues (2015) showcasing their genre-defying sound. Rolling Stone praised their work as “wild virtuosity used for more than just virtuosity,” cementing their reputation as trailblazers in contemporary acoustic music. Most Recently, Punch Brothers have been focused on their new musical variety show, “The Energy Curfew Music Hour,” with season one available on Audible and all podcasting platforms.

LAUFEBY

with Virginia Symphony Orchestra

Laufey returns to Virginia Arts Festival in a new partnership with Chartway Arena. The jazz singer, composer, multi-instrumentalist, and producer will be joined by the Virginia Symphony Orchestra on July 31, 2025.

"As a musician, my goal is to bring jazz and classical music to my generation," declares GRAMMY®-winning composer, singer, producer, and multi-instrumentalist Laufey. In 2022, the Icelandic-Chinese artist's trailblazing approach paid off, with a performance on Jimmy Kimmel LIVE! in support of her debut album Everything I Know About Love, sold out tours of North America, Asia, and Australia, and she was the most streamed jazz artist on Spotify.

The Los Angeles-based Laufey (pronounced lāy-vāy) continued her story by writing and recording Bewitched, her second album. Inspired by jazz greats and classical masters while possessing a point of view that could only be conveyed by a 21st-century twenty-something, Bewitched represents an expansion of Laufey's sonic palette. The album has gone on to break the record as the biggest debut for a jazz album on Spotify in history and earned a 2024 GRAMMY® win for "Best Traditional Pop Vocal Album."

ARTS EDUCATION

OPEN A STUDENT'S EYES TO WORLDS BEYOND THEIR OWN.

THE ARTS UNLOCK LEARNING

Every year, the Festival reaches more than 30,000 area students through student matinees, in-school performances, and opportunities to interact with and learn from professional artists through masterclasses, workshops, and more.

To learn more about getting your students involved, email education@vafest.org.

BE INSPIRED. INSPIRE OTHERS.

The Festival offers education outreach to all schools at a deeply discounted rate. For some schools, $10 per student matinee ticket is a hardship. Your corporate or individual gift (even a gift of $10!) makes full or partial financial aid available so that these inspiring experiences are available to any student at any school, no matter what.

Visit vafest.org or call 757-282-2807.
