ALISON KRAUSS

WELCOME

Dear Festival Friend,

Welcome! We hope you will join us again and again — our new season provides ample opportunity to experience unforgettable performances.

Dance lovers will enjoy stunning ballet from Dance Theatre of Harlem, dazzling tap from Dorrance Dance, and an extraordinary contemporary dance by BalletX.

Classical music fans will hear from some of the genre’s true legends, including violinist Joshua Bell and the Academy of St. Martin in the Fields, pianist Olga Kern, the Orava Quartet, and cellist Alisa Weilerstein. The Virginia Symphony Orchestra will be featured in several curated programs including a special salute to composer Adolphus Hailstork with Performance Today radio host Valerie Kahler as emcee, and Finding Peace at Potsdam, exploring music’s role in WWII history. Additional highlights include a live orchestra performance accompanying a screening of Top Gun: Maverick and Music of Queen — A Rock Symphony, and, for our youngest music lovers, Peppa Pig: My First Concert!

Jazz enthusiasts can savor performances by some of the greatest names in jazz, including bassist Christian McBride and vocalist Cécile McLorin Salvant with Danish Radio Big Band. Vocal music fans will enjoy a stellar lineup including Hampton Roads native and Tony Award®-winning Broadway star Adrienne Warren and cabaret favorite Meow Meow. If you love a Gershwin tune, be sure to attend Rob Fisher’s “Love, George & Ira: The Gershwins on Broadway.” For something wildly entertaining, don’t miss Edinburgh Fringe star Victory Melody’s new show Trouble, Struggle, Bubble, and Squeak.

You won’t want to miss the Virginia International Tattoo, a truly spectacular show with a salute to 250 years of American independence.

Join us for the four-day weekend finale at Williamsburg Live, featuring singer-songwriter Alison Krauss with Union Station — plus more artists to be announced soon.

DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM

Firebird
with Virginia Symphony Orchestra

In 2026, Virginia Arts Festival proudly welcomes the return of Dance Theatre of Harlem — this time bringing one of the company’s most beloved signature works: Firebird. This legendary production reimagines the classic Russian folk tale of love’s triumph over evil in a lush, Caribbean setting. With John Taras’ masterful choreography, Igor Stravinsky’s iconic score (1945 version) performed live by the Virginia Symphony Orchestra, and Geoffrey Holder’s dazzling costumes and sets, Firebird is a feast for the senses. First created in 1982, this Dance Theatre of Harlem classic has toured the world and enchanted audiences everywhere. As The New York Times declared: “...it does one thing other versions do not – send its audience into a whooping spell of delirium.”

Join us as Firebird takes flight once again — an unforgettable evening of dance, music, and spectacle that captures the heart and imagination.

DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM

Virginia Arts Festival welcomes back one of America’s most celebrated dance companies, Dance Theatre of Harlem, to Ferguson Center for the Arts in Newport News. Under the direction of Artistic Director Robert Garland, the company’s extraordinary dancers bring to life an exhilarating program that showcases works from some of today’s most acclaimed choreographers, merging the grace of classical ballet with the vitality of contemporary dance.

From lush and sweeping ensemble movement to breathtaking pirouettes, jumps and lifts, Dance Theatre of Harlem delivers a performance that thrills.

This program will feature New Bach, a neoclassical ballet created by Dance Theatre of Harlem Artistic Director Robert Garland and first performed in September 2001, immediately after 9/11; Passage of Being, which premiered this year, is a circular and physical piece unfolding in three cinematic movements set to the evocative music of Oscar®-nominated composer Ryan Lott Everything Everywhere All at Once; and Return, a soulful, high-octane celebration of the timeless sounds of James Brown and Aretha Franklin.

PROGRAM:
JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH New Bach
RYAN LOTT; SON LUX; ROB MOOSE; YMUSIC Passage of Being

DORRANCE DANCE

featuring Elizabeth Burke and Luke Hickey
A Swing Suite / SOUNDSpace / REDUX

With a complex history and powerful legacy, the uniquely American art form of tap dance explodes with energy and sly storytelling. Led by MacArthur “Genius Grant” recipient Michelle Dorrance, this award-winning company champions tap, effortlessly blending tap forms from Detroit, Memphis, Chicago and beyond with hip-hop, breaking, house, and body percussion, composing rhythmic melodies as they go. “A visual, auditory, and rhythmic delight from beginning to end. Lightning-fast feet and intricate, jam-in-your-seat-inducing rhythms...the performers captivated the audience” (LA Dance Chronicle).

Step into a turning point in history — Potsdam, Germany, 1945. The war has ended, but the future hangs in the balance. Truman, Churchill, and Stalin sit across the table, navigating mistrust, determination, and fragile hope as they shape the post-war world.

Amidst the tension of delicate political negotiations, the world leaders bonded over their love of music. Finding Peace at Potsdam brings this fascinating moment to life through powerful storytelling and stirring performances of their beloved classics. Experience the music of Tchaikovsky, Chopin, Kreisler, and more, woven together with insights that reveal the surprising role Hampton Roads played in this pivotal chapter of history.

It's more than a concert — it's an unforgettable journey through music and memory where history's struggles and triumphs resonate in every note.

A SOLO EVENING OF MUSIC WITH CHRIS THILE

Comfy and inviting as an old friend (if your old friend happens to be a musical genius), An Evening with Chris Thile brings the GRAMMY® Award-winning mandolinist, singer, songwriter, composer, and MacArthur Fellow recipient of the prestigious "Genius Grant" to the Festival's Perry Pavilion. Described by The Guardian as "that rare being: an all-round musician," and hailed by NPR as a "genre-defying musical genius," Thile is a founding member of the influential string bands Punch Brothers and Nickel Creek, and has collaborated with countless luminaries from Yo-Yo Ma to Fiona Apple to Brad Mehldau. In this intimate program, Thile will perform selections from his acclaimed solo recordings of Bach's Sonatas and Partitas — including the upcoming second volume out this autumn — alongside his signature improvisational brilliance.

Diehn Chorale, Nancy K. Klein, Director

One man's lifelong love of music fueled a composing career and endowed programs that would nurture artists for generations to come. F. Ludwig Diehn, a successful businessman with degrees in law and chemistry, fulfilled his musical dreams by composing works for orchestra and chamber ensembles that have been performed around the world. He chose Norfolk as his home, and left a legacy to the community whose impact is vast, touching the lives of aspiring artists, students, and audiences alike. Virginia Arts Festival joins Hampton Roads Community Foundation to celebrate Diehn's life and music in this memorable performance of his works featuring some of the region's finest musicians.

ALISA WEILERSTEIN, Project Creator and Cello FRAGMENTS 5: Lament

Alisa Weilerstein's FRAGMENTS 5 marks the next chapter of her groundbreaking, multi-year solo cello project, which interweaves movements from J.S. Bach's Cello Suites with 27 newly commissioned works by leading contemporary composers. Each installment is crafted as an immersive, theatrically staged experience, performed without interruption.

FRAGMENTS 5 features new works by composers including Gabriela Lena Frank, Gabriella Smith, Gerard McBurney, Mathilde Wantenaar, and Osvaldo Golijov, thoughtfully paired with J. S. Bach's Cello Suite No. 5. The result is a singular, multisensory journey that invites listeners to experience the cello repertoire in a completely new way.

Presented in the intimate Concert Hall at The College of William & Mary as part of the Virginia Arts Festival's 2026 season and co-presented with the College of William & Mary, this special 60-minute performance offers audiences a rare opportunity to experience Weilerstein's visionary project just before she performs it at Carnegie Hall.

RECITALS

BORROMEO STRING QUARTET

VERONA QUARTET

BORROMEO STRING QUARTET & VERONA QUARTET

A performance by the award-winning Borromeo String Quartet is “a musical experience of luminous beauty” (The San Diego Reader), sealing the acclaimed quartet’s reputation as one of the most important ensembles of our time. Admired and sought after for both its fresh interpretations of the classical music canon and its championing of works by 20th and 21st century composers, the ensemble has been hailed for its “edge-of-the-seat performances” by the Boston Globe. They perform here with the Verona Quartet, hailed as an “outstanding ensemble ... cohesive yet full of temperament” by The New York Times, and marked for its “bold interpretive strength, robust characterization and commanding resonance” (Calgary Herald).

ALL THINGS EQUAL — THE LIFE & TRIALS OF RUTH BADER GINSBURG

Written by Tony Award®-winning playwright RUPERT HOLMES
Starring Michelle Azar as Ruth Bader Ginsburg: Directed by Laley Lippard

In this moving, inspiring play, Supreme Court Justice “RBG” welcomes a friend of the family to her cozy chambers to convey fascinating and often funny moments of her life and its many trials: losing her mother the day before she graduated as valedictorian of her Brooklyn high school ... being one of only nine young women studying law at Harvard while also raising a daughter and helping her husband battle cancer ... fighting for women's rights in the 1970s ... taking courageous stands for human rights as a voice of reason amid a splintering and increasingly politicized Supreme Court. An evening with a great and compassionate icon of American justice — an RBG who is not only notorious but victorious as she takes a stand for ordinary people facing the many challenges of a changing world.

VICTORIA MELODY

Trouble, Struggle, Bubble, and Squeak

Edinburgh Fringe favorite Victoria Melody returns to Virginia Arts Festival after her successful wildly witty tale Major Tom.

Who really shapes history? While spending weekends with a historical re-enactment society, award-winning theatre maker and “Fringe legend” (Time Out) Victoria Melody uncovered the story of a group of 17th-century radicals called The Diggers — and began a quest to find the Diggers of today. Blending storytelling and stand-up, this wildly entertaining show celebrates the ordinary people still making history.

ROB FISHER, The Goode Family Artistic Advisor for Musical Theater and American Songbook

LOVE, GEORGE & IRA

The Gershwins on Broadway with Rob Fisher
Rob Fisher, piano and music director
Patti Murin, vocalist; Ross Lekites, vocalist

Famed Broadway music director and the Festival's Goode Family Artistic Advisor for Musical Theater and the American Songbook, Rob Fisher cut his musical teeth on Gershwin. The uniquely American music that George and Ira Gershwin created fused classical, Broadway, jazz, and Tin Pan Alley to form an exhilarating new kind of music for the 20th century and beyond, conquering stage and screen with enduring classics like “Embraceable You,” “Summertime,” “Love is Here to Stay,” and “Rhapsody in Blue,” a favorite for audiences and orchestras. Rob Fisher curated the Carnegie Hall Gershwin Centennial celebrations of Ira's in 1996 and George's in 1998. The Gershwin brothers' timeless songs explore the joys and disappointments of love, brought vividly to life by Ross Lekites (Brigadoon, Frozen) and Patti Murin (Frozen, Wicked). In this must-hear concert, Fisher gathers Broadway singers and a swinging quartet for a trip down a memory lane of greatness, courtesy of the immortal Gershwin brothers.

MEOW MEOW

An experience you will never forget! This internationally acclaimed cabaret star draws fans from every continent. “There are not many women who can stun an audience into pin-drop silence with an exquisitely delivered torch song one moment and rock the rafters with laughter the next” (The Evening Standard, UK). “The voice alone is glorious in its range and texture. But combine it with carefully chosen songs, superb comic timing, improvisational wit, and some engaging audience participation so cannily conducted that you suspect a degree in psychology, and you have an evening that demonstrates that Meow Meow really is the cat's whiskers” (The Guardian).

MUSIC OF QUEEN – A ROCK SYMPHONY

Performed by the Virginia Symphony Orchestra
Featuring Conductor Brent Havens
and Vocalist MiG Ayesa

We Will Rock You, We Are The Champions, Bohemian Rhapsody ... the list of Queen anthems goes on and on and on ... and now you can relive the thrill of a live Queen concert with full symphony orchestra in this unforgettable concert from Windborne Productions, a Festival favorite for decades. One reviewer wrote “everyone in the hall hung on every word and turn of the music” and the finale “had the whole throng in the packed house on their feet” (Houston Press). Get ready to rock!

2026 VIRGINIA INTERNATIONAL TATTOO

*Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness —
A Salute to 250 Years of American Independence*

In 2026 we commemorate the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution and the founding of the United States, and Virginia stands as the perfect place to honor our shared history. From the principles that built our democracy to the visionary leaders who forged its path, Virginia remains at the heart of the American story.

The 2026 Virginia International Tattoo proudly honors 250 years of American independence. More than 800 performers from around the world will take the stage, including massed pipes and drums, renowned military bands, precision drill teams, dancers, choirs, and more. Through stirring music, historic imagery, and moving tributes, the 2026 Virginia International Tattoo will celebrate the enduring promise of freedom that defines our nation.

This is more than a performance — it is a celebration of America's spirit, 250 years in the making.

NEW YORK VOICES The Grand Finale

"To collect such quality voices in one group is rare enough, yet the real trick of New York Voices is how well they mesh into the most exciting vocal ensemble in current jazz" (Boston Herald).

This GRAMMY® Award-winning vocal ensemble has set the high bar for jazz vocal artistry for more than 30 years, blending their signature harmonies, inspired improvisation, and genre-spanning versatility, on stage as well as on their acclaimed recordings. In 2026, New York Voices embarks on their much-anticipated final tour, a celebration of the group's enduring legacy and a heartfelt thank you to generations of fans. Hear jazz standards, big band classics, and more in a poignant, unforgettable tribute to the art of jazz.

CHRISTIAN McBRIDE with URSA MAJOR

Christian McBride has blazed an extraordinary trail as one of the most preeminent musicians of his time. Over the last three decades, the nine-time GRAMMY® Award-winner has made momentous advances as a dynamic musician and recording artist, a prolific composer-arranger-producer, a curator of culture, and a dedicated educator and mentor. A prolific bandleader, McBride's ensembles are each distinctive extensions of his creative inspiration, which span jazz, funk, soul, Latin, hip hop, and rhythm and blues. His celebrated groups — including his newest, Ursa Major, joining him here — have not only enjoyed consistent critical acclaim, but they have also emphasized his role as an early presenter of rising stars. McBride's staggeringly diverse career also includes the role of host of NPR's public radio program Jazz Night in America as well as The Lowdown: Conversations with Christian on SiriusXM. Don't miss this evening of stellar jazz with a star!

ATTUCKS JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Todd Stoll, Director

Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of Miles Davis & John Coltrane: Giants of Modern Jazz

Celebrate the centennial of two towering figures who changed music forever. We present a virtuoso gathering of some of the best jazz players you've ever heard to form the Attucks Jazz Orchestra, bringing the fire and beauty of Miles Davis and John Coltrane to life in a night of swing, innovation, and fearless creativity. From cool elegance to spiritual intensity, this concert honors the sound that defined modern jazz — and still shapes it today.

TOP GUN: MAVERICK

In Concert
with Virginia Symphony Orchestra

Top Gun: Maverick in Concert will feature the Virginia Symphony Orchestra performing the original score by Harold Faltermeyer, Lady Gaga, and Hans Zimmer, produced by Lorne Balfe.

Top Gun: Maverick was nominated for six Academy Awards® including Best Picture and Best Original Song, winning Best Sound.

After more than 30 years of service as one of the Navy's top aviators, Pete "Maverick" Mitchell (Tom Cruise) is where he belongs, pushing the envelope as a courageous test pilot and dodging the advancement in rank that would ground him. When he finds himself training a detachment of TOPGUN graduates for a specialized mission the likes of which no living pilot has ever seen, Maverick encounters Lt. Bradley Bradshaw (Miles Teller), call sign: "Rooster," the son of Maverick's late friend and Radar Intercept Officer Lt. Nick Bradshaw, aka "Goose."

Facing an uncertain future and confronting the ghosts of his past, Maverick is drawn into a confrontation with his own deepest fears, culminating in a mission that demands the ultimate sacrifice from those who will be chosen to fly it.

ONE NIGHT IN MEMPHIS

December 4, 1956: Four musicians destined to be seminal pioneers of popular music — Elvis Presley, Carl Perkins, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Johnny Cash — gathered, impromptu, in a recording studio in Memphis. The no-holds-barred jam that ensued was captured live on tape and became the inspiration for the Broadway hit Million Dollar Quartet. Now, One Night in Memphis captures that historic session, performed live and starring former cast members of the Broadway smash. We dare you to sit still in this rocking show jam-packed with rockabilly, country, gospel, and 1950's rock and roll hits like "Hound Dog," "Shake, Rattle & Roll," "Blue Suede Shoes," "Great Balls of Fire," "I Walk the Line," and more! "A live, hard-charging rock and roll romp!" (The Daily Herald)

LEE GREENWOOD

Making his Festival debut, international country music icon Lee Greenwood brings a celebrated career marked by chart-topping hits, industry honors, and enduring patriotism. A GRAMMY Award®-winner and recipient of multiple CMA and ACM Awards, Greenwood has released twenty-two studio albums, earned seven No. 1 hits, and charted thirty-eight singles.

His signature anthem, "God Bless the USA," reached the Top Five on the country charts three times — an unprecedented achievement — and rose to the Billboard Hot 100 following September 11, 2001. Honored with the Congressional Medal of Honor Society's National Patriot's Award, Greenwood has also entertained U.S. troops on more than 30 USO Tours.

THE LONE BELLOW

It's a sound like no other: born in the South, transplanted to Brooklyn, cooked in a Kentucky farmhouse and distilled in a Muscle Shoals studio — true to its roots in country, blues, gospel, and indie rock. Fans flock to share this band live, craving concerts of raw, ecstatic energy, with lush harmonies driving songs that pulse with honesty and human connection.

Get your tickets early for “arguably the most talented trio working in Americana music today — their superlative songwriting, instrumentation and vocal skills are on full display” (Americana Highways).

COWBOY JUNKIES

In the '80s, Cowboy Junkies proved that there was an audience waiting for something beautiful and reflective — and that audience has followed this iconic roots band through four decades of moving, masterful music. In their “virtuosic blend of folk and rock textures, riveting sonic paradoxes, [lead singer Margo Timmins] offers ragged proclamations like a poet towering on the outskirts of a war-ravaged city” (No Depression).

ALISON KRAUSS & UNION STATION

featuring Jerry Douglas with special guest Theo Lawrence

For nearly four decades, Alison Krauss & Union Station have upheld their legacy as one of the most influential and widely celebrated acts in bluegrass and roots music. Known for an immaculately crafted but endlessly surprising sound that transcends the boundaries of roots, country, rock & roll, and pop, Alison Krauss & Union Station released their highly anticipated new album, Arcadia, in 2025. This marked their first studio album since the 2011 masterpiece Paper Airplane — a critically lauded, multiple GRAMMY Award®-winning LP that debuted at #1 on the Billboard Country, Bluegrass, and Folk Album charts. Alison Krauss & Union Station have brought their phenomenal live show to sold-out performances at famed venues like Red Rocks Amphitheatre, The Greek Theatre, Radio City Music Hall, and London’s Royal Festival Hall, in addition to supporting Paul Simon in Hyde Park for his 2012 Graceland reunion. They now continue the celebration of their new music with the Arcadia 2026 Tour.

ARTS EDUCATION

OPEN A STUDENT'S EYES TO WORLDS BEYOND THEIR OWN.

THE ARTS UNLOCK LEARNING

Every year, the Festival reaches more than 30,000 area students through student matinees, in-school performances, and opportunities to interact with and learn from professional artists through masterclasses, workshops, and more.

To learn more about getting your students involved, email education@vafest.org.

BE INSPIRED. INSPIRE OTHERS.

The Festival offers education outreach to all schools at a deeply discounted rate. For some schools, $10 per student matinee ticket is a hardship. Your corporate or individual gift (even a gift of $10!) makes full or partial financial aid available so that these inspiring experiences are available to any student at any school, no matter what.

Visit vafest.org or call 757-282-2807.

ART MAKES A DIFFERENCE! SUPPORT US TODAY!

Virginia Arts Festival is grateful for the support of the community in which we serve. Donations are the backbone of support needed for the realization of the Festival's mission. With these gifts, donors support our guest artists, public performances, education outreach and community engagement programs, and other vital programs throughout the season. Help the performing arts reach everyone in our community. We are deeply grateful to our entire family of supporters.

For more information, please reach out to the Development Office at 757-282-2814 or grevill@vafest.org.
